

BULLETIN

1. Personal "for sale" gear ads from non-members will not be accepted for publication.
2. The list of regular complimentary Bulletin recipients is to be reviewed annually.
3. An email notice will be sent to all members when each Bulletin becomes available on the web site.
4. The printed version of the Bulletin will be sent to those members who choose to pay the required subscription fee.
5. A permanent "In Memoriam" spot will be established in the Bulletin to allow for death notices.
6. Members may submit one free small ad per year.
7. Activity leaders must submit reports to the bulletin editor by the first of the month that precedes the month the item is to be published.
